

Banco de la República provides its services and performs its functions with a process management approach based on 9 primary macro-processes, which are supported by 9 corporate macro-processes, as follows:

	PRIMARY MACRO-PROCESSES		CORPORATE MACRO-PROCESSES
	Acting as fiscal agent and providing services to the State		Strategic planning and financial management
	Managing the foreign reserves portfolio		Internal control system and disciplinary affairs management
	Supporting the operation of the electronic payment system and providing financial infrastructure services		Central banking and corporate legal management
	Lender of last resort and contributing to financial stability		Risk management
	Legal tender production and distribution		Talent Management
	Designing and implementing monetary, foreign-exchange, and credit policy		Management of services and facilities
	Producing economic information		Innovation and process management
	Developing and promoting economic research		Technology and information management

	Managing cultural heritage		Relationship and communication management